A STITCH IN SPACE. HOGOJI – May 10, 1988 . Norman does many things well. His head is good, his voice is good and his hands are good too. They're strong and intelligent, with long fingers. In his day Norman has used his hands skillfully for finished carpentry, lead guitar, elegant calligraphy, and finicky kesa and rakusu sewing.

A Stitch in Space. Preface. It turns out that one of the rules I live by is when a close atheist friend asks me to write a story about a priest in space, I do. I hadn't realized it until my friend suggested the theme, and I was surprised by how much more specific this moral principle is than the others I try to live my life by.
