'When the Stars Sang' was an ok romance, but a great book. I loved the island and supporting characters more than the main romance that was the focus of the story. Kathleen and Molly were fine together, but their love affair didn't shine.

WHEN THE STARS SANG meets all my criteria for a really good novel. Molly and Kathleen are drawn to each other but have real issues in life to deal with and at times have to put their budding relationship on the rear burner to take care of something urgent in their community, a small island called Little Sister, located on the East Coast.
